I live in a house near the sea. It is an old house, about 20 years old, and it is very small. There are two bedrooms upstairs but no bathroom. The bathroom is downstairs next to the kitchen and there is a living room where there is a lovely old fireplace. There is a garden in front of the house. The garden goes down to the beach and in spring and summer there are flowers everywhere. I live alone with my dog, Boxer but we have many visitors. Many of my friends work in the city, so they often stay with me because they want to relax. I love my house for many reasons: the garden, the flowers in summer, the fire in the winter, but the best thing is the view from my bedroom window.

IV. Em hãy đọc đoạn văn sau và trả lời câu hỏi.

Last Friday was an unlucky day for Ann. When she left home, the weather was dry. Her mother told her to take an umbrella, but she didn't listen. It was hot in the shopping centre, so she took off her coat. Then she saw her friend Beth. They went to have a burger together. When Ann was leaving the shopping centre, she remembered that she had left her coat in the restaurant. She hurried back to get it but it wasn't there. Her bus ticket was in the coat pocket. So Ann had to walk home. It started to rain. Poor Anna – no coat, no umbrella, no bus ticket, no money. When she got home, she was cold and wet. She became ill and had to spend the next day – her birthday – in bed. She couldn't have her birthday party.

A TWENTY YEAR- STOLEN BICYCLE

Ted Robinson has been worried all the week. Last Tuesday he received a letter from the local police. In the letter the police asked him to meet them at the police station. Ted wondered why the police wanted him, but he went to the station yesterday and now he is not worried any more. At the station he was told by a smiling policeman that they found his bicycle. Five days ago, the policeman told him, the bicycle was picked up in a small village four hundred miles away. They are now sending his bicycle to his home by train. Ted was most surprised when he heard the news. He was amused too, because he never expected the bicycle to be found. It was stolen twenty years ago when Ted was a boy of fifteen.

A young man from Germany named Levi Strauss arrived in California in 1850. He went there to sell things to the miners. He saw that the miners needed strong pants, so he began to make them. He used cloth that people make tents from. He put rivets on the pockets to make them strong because the man put rocks in their pockets. These pants were very strong and lasted a long time. The pants became very popular immediately.

Later Mr. Strauss started making jeans from cotton cloth from Nimes, France. People called this cloth denim. Christopher Columbus used denim for the sails of his ships. Sailors in Genoa, Italy, wore denim pants. The word "jeans" comes from the word "Genoa". Mr. Strauss made the first jeans in the United States, but the idea and the kind of cloth came from Europe. The names came from France and Italy.
