Hi, Jolie!

We are moving to our new house next month. The house is very large. It has three bedrooms, four bathrooms, a living room, and a kitchen. It also has a garden, a pool, and a garage.

When you come in the front door, there is a long hall with a bathroom and a kitchen at the other end. The living room is in the front of the house. It is comfortable and you can walk into the garden from there. The pool is in the back of the garden and the garage is on the left.

The next rooms are the bedrooms. There is a bathroom in each bedroom. It is so convenient because we can do personal hygiene in our own room. I'm very happy to have my own room. All my furniture is here and it looks good.

I really like the new house.

Love,

Phong

Things You Can Do to Protect the Earth

1. Reduce, reuse, and recycle. Reduce means to minimize the amount of waste we create. Reuse refers to using items more than once. Recycle means putting a product to a new use instead of throwing it away. Follow the three "R's" to conserve natural resources and landfill space.

2. Ride a bike or use public transport when we can for everyday travel.

3. Reduce energy consumption: When you do not use a house device, turn it off. For example, if you don't watch TV, turn it off. Turn off the light when you leave a room (even if you intend to return.)

4. Don't pour chemicals into the ground or drains leading to our waterways. Choose non-toxic chemicals in the home and office.

5. Plant a tree. Trees provide food and oxygen. They help save energy, clean the air, and combat climate change.

6. Shop wisely. Buy less plastic and bring a reusable shopping bag.

7. Educate. When you further your own education, you can help others understand the importance and value of our natural resources.

True      False

Aspirations of Thang Long (Khát vọng Thăng Long)

I watched the movie Khát vọng Thăng Long last weekend. The movie was about Ly Cong Uan. He was born in 974 and became Emperor Ly Thai To in 1009. One year after his accession to the throne, he ordered the transfer of the capital from Hoa Lu to Dai La (present-day Ha Noi). This decision showed the strategic view of an excellent ruler and marked an important turning point in the national history.

In autumn 1010, a royal convoy started from Hoang Long River, following the Day and Chau (also Phu Ly) Rivers, and moored at Dai La Citadel. Standing at the citadel's foot, the Emperor saw a rising dragon-shaped cloud and renamed the citadel Thăng Long (Ascending Dragon), making Thang Long the capital city of Dai Co Viet.

It was a really interesting Vietnamese history movie. I loved it! You should watch it!

Dear Julia,

I'm so glad you are coming to Vietnam for your vacation. It's wonderful! When you're here, we should travel to see some of Vietnam's natural wonders. Ha Long Bay and Ban Gioc Waterfalls are two beautiful places in the north of Vietnam. There are lots of different islands, mysterious caves and amazing waterfalls. We can go to the two places by plane or train. Then we go sightseeing by motorbike and boat.

In Phu Quoc Island, we can swim in the sea and play games such as scuba diving, coral viewing and exploring the deserted islands. Mui Ne is ideal for relaxing on the beach, admiring the sunset or playing other exciting games such as sandboarding and kitesurfing. We can also enjoy the seafood there. They are very fresh and delicious. We can go to Phu Quoc by plane or and go to Mui Ne by car.
