The World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF) is a very large charity in the world. They first started in 1961 in Switzerland. They work in six areas: food, climate, freshwater, wildlife, forests and oceans. The WWF has offices in more than 100 countries. To help the WWF, people can ‘adopt’ an animal. People can choose the animals they like, such as tigers, butterflies, bears, birds, etc. and make a donation. The WWF will send them photographs, information and an adoption certificate. It’s a great way to learn more about animals. Or they can donate money by buying toy animals. The WWF-Vietnam started in 1985. They help to save wild animals, such as Saolas, rhinos, elephants, tortoises and turtles. They also make wildlife documentaries to teach young children to love wild animals and live in peace with nature.

B. Read the following passage and fill in each blank with a suitable word or phrase from the box. There is ONE word/phrase that you don't need.

reuse	electricity	water	plastic	free	picking up
-------	-------------	-------	---------	------	------------

Our planet is in big trouble – animals are disappearing, the sea and the air are dirty. But there are many different things we can do to protect the environment. First, recycle everything you can. Don't throw away plastic bottles, glass jars, cardboard boxes or cans. We can (38) reuse them to store food, toys or grow flowers. Second, why not walk or cycle to school or work? It's (39) free, good exercise and good for the environment. Third, don't waste (40) electricity. Switch the lights off when you leave the room. And keep the city clean by (41) picking up litter off the streets. When you go shopping, bring your own bags instead of taking (42) plastic bags. Together we can make a big difference and help save the planet.
