Hi Sira,

I'm really happy that we'll see each other next weekend! A friend of mine plays in a band and they're going to play a small concert on Friday evening. Would you like to go and see my friend playing with her group?

We need to decide what to do on Saturday. We could either take a trip down the River Clyde in a boat (I'm sure you'd love the beautiful scenery) or we could go and see a football match. Can you tell me which activity you'd rather do?

Just one final thing. You told me in your last message that you have a new skateboard. Could you bring it with you to Scotland? I'd love to have a go on it.

All the best,
Chris

34. Why does Chris write to Sira?

Dear Jack,

I am writing this letter to thank you for coming to my birthday party last night. Thank you so much for spending your time coming to my party. Also, thanks for the wonderful gift that you brought. It was so pretty.

I hope you liked the food, the music and the activities at the party. I hope that you enjoy all of these. I am sorry if anything was not as good as you want.

Thank you again for coming and making my day more special. Give my love to uncle and aunty.

Yours Lovingly,
Rose

- (B) Rose prepared for the party carefully.

(C) Jack gave Rosie a gift.

Read the email. Answer questions 38 to 39.

To: francois.dupont192@me-mail.com

Subject: Saturday

Dear Jack,

Thanks for your message. I'm looking forward to your visit to Dublin. I'll come to the airport with my father to collect you on Saturday. What time does your flight arrive?

I think you'll like Dublin. We live about 5km from the city centre but there are buses that go into the city all the time. When you're here there are lots of things we can do.

We can go to the water park at the city center and we can ride our bikes around Phoenix Park. If you like horror stories, we can visit Dracula's Castle and we can watch a film there too. And of course, you'll meet all my friends and we can play football together.

You should bring a coat and a jacket. The weather here is usually cold!

See you on Saturday.

Tim

38. Why does Tim write to Jack?

- (A) To introduce his city
- (B) To talk about one future plan
